

Season 3 Episode 13

Flashback-Slashed

Ultraverse Keith is in a Monk class and the instructor is showing building methods used by Ultraverse monks for machines and gadgets. The instructor shows a button with arrows being shown pointing outward. The instructor said, "Whenever we build and design devices that can take out a whole universe, we always put a blast away button to send the machine to a faraway place so it will be out of reach of the bad guy. That is what they thought back then since the concept of evil universes did not exist yet." Keith and the monks leave the class and one of the monks said, "Hey, Keith. You want to come to the mall with us later today?" Keith said, "I'm sorry but I have to help guard the data center today. I will see you later." The friend monk said, "See you later."

The Ultraverse Data Center is shown being used by Monks to store important crucial data on the Ultraverse and the other universes. The contents are guarded by top of the top guards with large heavy armor. A normal looking guard walks through the shelves filled with contents. He walks up to a bookshelf filled with crucial information. He picks up several of the information books and he places them in a small compartment that serves as a black hole. Ultraverse Keith is in the control room and he looks over security footage. Ultraverse Keith said, "Thanks for having me here. I have been a Monk for some time now and this is the first time I got to go to this place. It is really quite intriguing how some of the most crucial information of all the universes is stored in this building." The guard Keith is with said, "Well, they need to be kept somewhere. The contents here are not allowed to leave the building under any circumstance." Keith spots the guard taking the books off the shelf and putting them into his black-hole box and heading for the door. Keith said, "You say the books never leave the place?" The guard said, "That's correct." Keith said, "I see a guard taking the books and it looks like he is leaving the place." The guard looks at the screen and he sees what Keith just said. The guard presses the emergency lock-button. The doors close and are bolted shut in the place.

The guard tries running out and he is in a large warehouse room and he gets sealed in. Ultraverse Keith falls out from a vent on the ceiling and he lands in front of the guard and he draws out his sword. Ultraverse Keith said, "Stand down, thug. You've lost." The guard pushes Keith off and tries running for the bolted door. The thug takes out a ray gun and he melts through the door. Keith runs in after him and Keith looks at his watch and he said, "The intruder has technology that melts through the doors." Keith runs close to the running intruder and Keith throws his sword at him and it hits the back of his leg and he falls in front of Keith. Keith said, "We will see who you are." Keith unmasks the intruder revealing it is, Clyde." Keith stands back and he said, "Clyde?" Clyde said, "Of course it is me you dimwit. I have all the secrets of the Ultraverse here on me and I can now rule your universe as well as the others." Keith fights over Clyde for the contents and Clyde slips a block in Keith's hands and Clyde runs away. Keith said, "I got it." Keith looks and sees that the box is empty.

The SWAT Team and armored security surround the main city and they have their searchlights out looking for Clyde. Keith is in a helicopter and he uses a telescope to look down on the city. He sees Clyde walking up a fire escape on an apartment building and he runs in." Keith jumps out of the helicopter and he activates his parachute and he lands on the walkway right outside the window. He sees Clyde has a universe in the room and Clyde enters the universe. Keith grabs the universe and he looks at it.

Keith brings the universe into his main command center. An expert looks at the universe and he said, "Clyde is in here alright. It is only a matter of time before he gets out." Keith said, "Someone needs to go in there after him. He could be devising a plan to rule the universe. Who knows what's in there?" The expert said, "You're the one that goes gallivanting around the universes. You have less fear than me. Why don't you try it?" Keith places the universe in a place where he can easily access it and he jumps in it. Keith sees blurry images and disturbing scenes of things. Keith lands in a pit in a freaky concert hall where hippies rule the place. Keith runs out of the place and he sees a large hippie tower in the center of everything. He sees posters that read, "Love Life" and "The Power of Joy is the Most Powerful of All." Keith's head begins to spin. Keith takes out his map of his familiar universes. Keith said, "This place is a living nightmare. It is like the 60's but with modern technology. I need an expert. I need someone that is knowledgeable in this."

Keith jumps out of a portal and he is in Captain Fusion's red and black lair. Red and black robots say, "Intruder!" The robots arm their weapons at Ultraverse Keith and Keith uses his sword and he slashes them off. More come after him and they fire machine guns at him. Keith jumps and spins and dodges all the shots and he slashes the guns off the robots and he slashes their heads off. Captain Fusion is in a hover chair and he floats over Keith and the wreckage. Captain Fusion said, "So you've come. You are the real Ultraverse Keith I've heard of. I hope you are not a jerk like that other Keith I knew." Keith said, "I am the new Keith that is a Monk in the Ultraverse. Look, I need your help..."

Captain Fusion said, "You want me to come with you into this other universe so I can save the Ultraverse from this Clyde kid you speak of?" Keith said, "That is correct." Captain Fusion said, "I guess I have no other choice. Otherwise, I would be gone in a week if what you tell me is true."

Jason and Mason are in Mason's lab and Mason gets a video message from Captain Fusion on his computer screen. Captain Fusion said, "Mason, I am going away to another universe. I am faxing you my will right now in case I don't come back." Mason looks at the will and it is blank. Mason said, "If this is your will, there must not be anything for us in it." Captain Fusion said, "If I don't make it back, there won't be anything to give you since we will all be gone and everything will cease to exist." Mason said, "I guess not." Jason is playing with a new toy that phases through walls. Mason makes the toy phase through a shelf and it breaks the shelf and it tumbles over and reveals a wall with a portal on it behind the shelf. Jason said, "Mason, when did we get a portal?"

Keith and Captain Fusion walk down the streets of the 60's city and it is twilight outside. Captain Fusion looks around and he said, "This is like a utopian paradise." Keith said, "Cut to the chase. We don't know where Clyde is yet but we need to locate him. I have a sample of his DNA here and I believe you have a device that can tell me where the DNA source is." Captain Fusion sees a large gathering in the park where hippies get on stage and they rant about things. Captain Fusion joins the crowd. The hippie on stage said, "And then they dissed my status as a hippie and now they closed their doors down on us and they don't want anything to do with us anymore and then... Is that Captain Fusion?" Everyone in the crowd looks at Captain Fusion and he is pushed onto the stage. The hippie said, "Captain Fusion? I thought you were gone. I am truly honored by this." The hippie gives Captain Fusion the microphone. Captain Fusion said, "Hello, I am Captain Fusion and I guess everyone knows me. I was wondering if any of you know this kid." Captain Fusion shows the group a picture of Clyde. All the people in the crowd shake their heads no. One guy said, "My uncle has a luxury mansion. I guess it is party time now that Captain Fusion is back." Everyone cheers. Captain Fusion joins the crowd and gets into an oversized limo and drives away." Keith sees this and he said, "The Ultraverse is over. I guess I am in this myself now." Keith takes out Captain Fusion's DNA device and he places the piece of Clyde's DNA in the machine and it tells him where Clyde is.

Captain Fusion is the center of attention at a pool party and Captain Fusion is in the pool while gorgeous hot girls rub his back. A fan asks, "How did you come back?" Captain Fusion said, "I came back from another universe. I am big in another universe. I fight crime with my young fans, Jason and Mason." The fan said, "You mean the, Jason and Mason?" Captain Fusion said, "That is them." The fan said, "Jason and Mason are our lords in this town. They saved us from the evils of corporate America and they gave us this great freedom we have now." Captain Fusion said, "Where can I find this, Jason and Mason?"

Captain Fusion is brought to Mason's flashy lab and he enters. A rainbow colored, Orbot greets him. Orbot said, "How and what can I do for you?" Captain Fusion said, "I am here to see, Jason and Mason." Orbot said, "Right this way." Captain Fusion is lead to a room filled with rainbow lights and Jason and Mason sit in the large lab in flashy costumes. Captain Fusion said, "Jason and Mason." Mason said, "Captain Fusion. Welcome back. We thought you were long gone." Captain Fusion said, "I was sent here because some kid named Clyde is here and he has dangerous records and..." Mason said, "Chillax my friend. There is nothing to fear here." Jason said, "We got everything under control." Jason pulls a switch revealing a diagram of control chips being placed in people. Jason said, "We created the control chips so people will feel fine and perfect all the time. The truth is, they are really weak and pathetic." Mason said, "We steal from the banks and rob people's homes all the time. Why do you think we have such a nice house?" Captain Fusion said, "What house?" Mason said, "The one that belonged to the richest man in the city. He owned it and we made him give over the deed. It has a large pool and an oversized supply of every soda imaginable. It is an ideal place and we own it. We let the hippies party there all the time so they will feel even more perfect about themselves while we do our deeds. I say they deserve it for believing in absolute freedom." Captain Fusion said, "This is madness. Someone has to stand up to you." Mason said, "You did. Or at least you did in this universe. I guess we shall do the same." Orbot comes out with a giant dissection machine. A needle on it lights up.

Captain Fusion jumps over the machine and he smacks the top of it and it does nothing. Jason said, "It is titanium alloy. It is a weakness to your augmented strength." Captain Fusion spots a glass cylinder filled with a green liquid. Captain Fusion bolts off the machine and he kicks the liquid cylinder and the green liquid pours all over the floor. The machine melts into the liquid and Captain Fusion jumps and grabs onto a large light fixture on the ceiling. Orbot hovers upwards and he tries to fight Captain Fusion. Orbot takes some jabs and Captain Fusion dodges them and he kicks Orbot and Orbot goes spinning. Captain Fusion climbs on the monkey bars of light fixtures and he is almost out the window when Orbot comes zipping up again. Captain Fusion spins out the window and Orbot comes dashing out and Captain Fusion closes the window at perfect timing and Orbot is smashed on the window and he falls into the green liquid. Jason and Mason are in a boat that is floating in the green liquid.

Captain Fusion is running around outside and he runs through a graveyard. Captain Fusion looks around and he sees a large grave that has his logo on it. Captain Fusion reads the text and it reads, "Captain Fusion. Dear superhero friend and... traitor!" Captain Fusion runs away. Jason picks up a remote and he sends a signal to all the hippies. Jason said, "Target Captain Fusion. He is a menace to all of us." Captain Fusion runs down a city street and people crowd around him. They grab onto him and he shakes them off. Captain Fusion tries escaping the city but the people crowd around him and pin him to the ground.

Keith is sitting in a cafe drinking a coffee and he looks at a TV in the diner. DDD News comes on the TV and George Ferrier as a laid-back slacker reporter appears on the screen. George Ferrier said, "In today's news, I guess, Captain Fusion has been caught again and we are going to have the Jason and Mason punish him because... uh... they are great and Captain Fusion is dumb or something." Keith sees Captain Fusion getting arrested and thrown in an armored truck. Keith said, "I guess I am alone in this. I also have to save Captain Fusion if I can but, the universe comes first."

Keith hides in a bush next to the yard of an abandoned factory. Keith hides behind objects in the parking lot and he uses suction cups and he sticks to the outside wall and he uses his sword and he cuts down a window and he jumps in. It is pitch black. Keith takes out a flashlight and he sees he is on a convert-belt. The lights come on in the factory and the convert-belt is activated. It moves fast and Keith runs with the convert-belt. There are objects and he jumps around them. Keith runs fast and he loses his balance and he is shot off the convert-belt and smashes into a wall. Keith falls out of the wall and he lands on the floor and Clyde is there. Clyde said, "Look who finally decided to show up. Since you are going to be gone after today, I will show you my newest invention." Clyde shows Keith his large device. Clyde said, "This machine can manipulate matter of any sort in the Ultraverse. I was able to make it because of those awesome documents I stole from the data center. You will have the pleasure of watching everything in this universe cease to exist except for me and this machine of course." Keith takes out his sword and he tries to stop Clyde from using the machine and Clyde said, "Look what else I can do." Clyde spins and kicks Keith's sword in the air and Clyde takes out a nozzle on the machine and it launches an orange goo and it dissolves the sword and the floor underneath. Clyde begins to activate the machine.

Keith looks at it and studies the control panel. He sees a button with an arrow on it. Keith gets a flashback of being in a Monk class and the instructor said, "Whenever we build and design devices that can take out a whole universe, we always put a blast away button to send the machine to a faraway place so it will be out of reach of the bad guy. That is what they thought back then since the concept of evil universes did not exist yet." Ultraverse Keith grabs onto Clyde and he struggles to make Clyde hit the button and Keith makes Clyde hit the button. Clyde grabs onto Keith's hand and he said, "What did you just do?" Keith said, "You would know if you were a Monk like me." The machine launches off and Keith grabs onto the side of the machine and Clyde is gripped onto Keith's hand. The machine crash lands in a lab complex where Jason and Mason have Captain Fusion connected to a torture machine. The machine smashes the torture machine and Captain Fusion is set free. Captain Fusion sees Keith is with Clyde. Captain Fusion said, "Keith, and you found Clyde. What a stroke of luck." Jason said, "Lucky for now." Jason and Mason activate all kinds of commands and Captain Fusion sees every single painful memory of his at once. Captain Fusion falls to the floor and twitches. Keith has his hands on his head. Keith said, "What is this thing?" Mason said, "It takes all your worst memories and it amplifies them by ten thousand all at once. Keith stands strong and Keith said, "I disassociated myself from those memories. I am now, Ultraverse Keith. I have nothing to lose." Keith fights the pain and he tries walking to the glass enclosed space Jason and Mason are in. Jason said, "It is no use." Mason said, "This whole place is encased in brainwave emitters." Keith punches the glass and it does nothing. Keith keeps smashing the glass and it does nothing. Keith sees Captain Fusion lying there in pain. Keith grabs Captain Fusion and he uses Captain Fusion to smash the glass and Keith smashes the entire control panel. The pain stops and Captain Fusion and Clyde get up. Keith said, "End this nonsense, now!"

Jason said, "How dear me. It looks like he smashed our controls." Mason said, "Whatever will we do?" Clyde looks at his machine and he said, "My machine is still active. It still works." Clyde looks at everyone and Clyde said, "Say bye now." A portal opens in the place and regular Jason and Mason are in a UFO and they shoot a phaser beam at Clyde's machine and it is destroyed. Clyde holds a fist at Jason and Mason and he said, "Curse you, Jason and Mason!" Jason and Mason land and they get out of the UFO. Jason said, "Hey Keith guess what? Last time you were in Mason's lab and you left, you left a portal open. We went in it and we were directed to you. That expert guy that says he knows you gave us a UFO." Keith said, "I see that." Captain Fusion picks up Clyde and he places him in the UFO. They get seated in and they are ready for takeoff. Keith stands outside the UFO. Jason said, "There's room for one more. Are you coming?" Keith said, "I still have some business here to take care of."

Ultraverse Monks raid evil Jason and Mason's lab and they set up a clinic where they remove the control devices from everyone's brain. Evil Jason and Mason are in a prison in that universe that is being guarded by Monks.

Captain Fusion sits with Jason and Mason at a table in Mason's lab. Mason said, "I find it hard to imagine that such a universe could exist." Captain Fusion said, "I couldn't either. The Ultraverse is a scary place. Only the qualified should go in." Jason said, "Like us. We've been there a few times now." Mason said, "I am sure there will be more in the future. Next time though, if you get another assignment like this, bring us with you." Captain Fusion said, "I guess."

Clyde is in a petty apartment in Jason and Mason's San Francisco that is being guarded by Ultraverse Monks.
